

Dental Hygiene

Help put a healthy smile on people's faces as a dental hygienist. As a licensed dental hygienist, you'll do more than clean teeth. As part of a dental health care professional team, you will specialize in periodontal therapy, oral health education, oral cancer screenings, dental nutritional counseling, and identify potential health problems as a dental hygienist who treats the whole patient.

Careers in Dental Hygiene

Average Starting Salary: $81,500

Average Salary: $93,600

Projected Job Growth: 25.8%

*Data for Collin County obtained from JobsEQ and O*Net
Note: Average salary for occupation as of 2023 and job growth projected from 2023-2030.*

About Collin College's Program

Enrollment is limited and admission is competitive. A mix of the newest clinical technologies with a broad-based education in biological sciences, humanities, and the dental sciences means you will be ready for work in private practice and community settings as a member of the dental health care team.

Program Features:

- The program is accredited by the American Dental Association's Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA).
- Students work with live patients in the college's state-of-the-art, on-site dental clinic.

Your Educational Path
Associate of Applied Science
Dental Hygiene
(68 credit hours)

Contact Information

Christine McClellan
Director, Dental Hygiene
cmcclellan@collin.edu

Visit

www.collin.edu/academics/programs/dental-hygiene-overview or scan the QR code for more information.

Collin College is an equal opportunity institution and provides educational and employment opportunities without discrimination on any basis protected by applicable law.

Published 2/10/2025. Information is subject to change.
For the latest version, visit www.collin.edu/academics/info/.

17896-25PB