

How to connect to CougarLANd

Instructions for Windows XP Users

 Right click on My Network Places and choose Properties. Right click on your wireless network card and select View Available Wireless Networks. "CougarLANd" should be listed.

 Click Connect. A window will pop up stating you are connecting to an unsecured network. If you want to connect to the unsecured wireless network, then click Connect Anyway. Your computer will go through the process of obtaining an IP address. Once you have an IP address, the connection status will show "Connected."
