

SECOND ANNUAL

TRENDS

in Teaching College Composition

This year's conference will focus on the teaching of argument and persuasion in first-year writing programs.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Richard Enos

Texas Christian University
Professor and Holder of Lillian Radford Chair of Rhetoric and Composition

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2015

Collin College, Spring Creek Campus
Living Legends Conference Center
2800 East Spring Creek Blvd., Plano, TX 75035

Register at www.surveymonkey.com/s/TrendsinTeaching-Spring2015

For more information about this conference, please contact Dr. Lisa A. Kirby at LKirby@collin.edu. Please note that participants from institutions other than Collin College will be required to pay a $35 registration fee by cash or check on the day of the conference.

