Scholarships

- A scholarship is money given by individuals, companies or organizations based either on need, merit, or some other qualification.
- Considered "gift aid", which means free money
- Does not usually require you to file a FAFSA (check with donor)

Scholarships

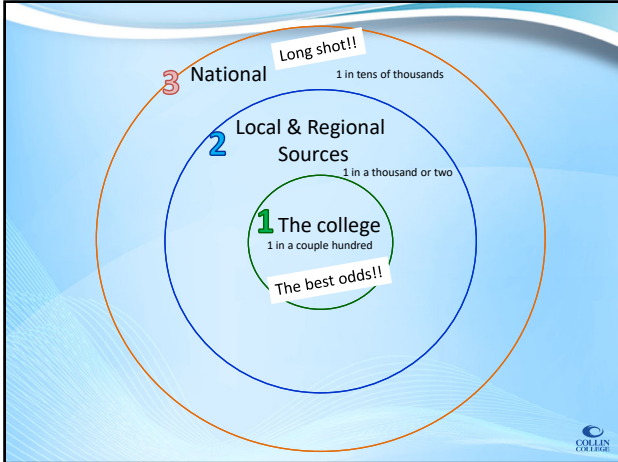

- There's a strategy to applying for scholarships
- It's a numbers game; the more you apply for the more you are likely to get
- No one wants to fill out 50 scholarship applications

So how do you prioritize your scholarship search and application process to get the most bang for your buck? (meaning; the most effective use of your time and energy)

Follow our three easy steps!!

Scholarship Scams

Be alert for the following red flags:

- A scholarship is guaranteed or your money back
- Credit card or bank information to “hold” scholarship
- Vague or no contact information
- “You’ve been selected” or “You’re a finalist” in a contest you didn’t enter
- “You can’t get this information anywhere else”
- Masquerading as a government agency
