

Chapter 6: Off-Campus Conduct

When a student or program applicant is alleged to have violated the Student Code of Conduct, Board policies, laws, and/or Collin College procedures during a Collin College-sponsored or -related activity off campus, Collin College reserves the right to investigate and initiate disciplinary proceedings. Collin College may take appropriate action in situations occurring at off-campus, Collin College-sponsored or -related activities involving conduct that demonstrates flagrant disregard for or threatens the health, safety, or property of any student or other individual; and/or any other activity which adversely affects the Collin College community or the pursuit of Collin College's Core Values.

If the district dean of students, appropriate Title IX coordinator, appropriate deputy Title IX coordinator, or designee determines the alleged misconduct affects Collin College, as stated above, the appropriate investigation and resolution process may be initiated (i.e., student disciplinary process, Title IX Complaint Resolution Process).
