

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS
— THE YOU OF A —

DIVERSITY IMPACT

The deadline to apply for Diversity Impact 2015 is almost here. Please encourage your students to apply for this free student event, designed specifically for the class of 2016. Diversity Impact will be offered twice during the spring semester – first on February 19-21 and again on March 5-7.

The deadline to apply for Diversity Impact 2015 is January 28th, and space is limited. To be considered for participation, your students should complete an application and select the session they would like to attend. Along with an application, students should submit an essay on the following topic:

What would you consider to be your societal responsibility as an educated person, once you complete your degree? Give us an example of how you would bring about significant change.

Applications for Diversity Impact 2015 may be submitted online or printed and mailed to the Office of Admissions.

Housing will be provided in on-campus residential facilities for students who are selected to attend Diversity Impact. Housing for parents or guardians cannot be provided.

The University of Arkansas will also provide transportation in Arkansas and the surrounding area. Stops are currently planned at several locations throughout the region but will vary by event date. More information is available at the link above. Students are not allowed to drive to campus, and on-campus parking is unavailable for overnight guests. Please encourage your students to take advantage of this complimentary transportation service.

We look forward to seeing your students on campus and hope you will encourage them to apply to attend Diversity Impact 2015. If you or your students have any questions about the event or the application process, please contact our office by emailing uofa@uark.edu or calling (479) 575-5346.

Sincerely,
